Autumn Term 2022 Year 3&4

Connected Curriculum Theme: Identity and diversity
Value:
TOPIC: How can make society fairer?
CONTEXT: Exploring the Stone Age and Inuit societies we will consider what made them fair. We will then focus on food waste, linking this to how the Stone Age people used everything from an animal.

Brave Changemakers Outcome:
Mini (Term 1): Performing poetry.
Maxi (Term 2): Campaign to encourage donations to the foodbank.

Facts (Knowledge & Understanding)	Skills
• Use different sources of information to find out about the past. • Understand what is fair and unfair in societies other than our own. • How fairness might not always mean equal treatment • Some causes and effects of poverty and inequality at local, national levels. • Understand that during the Stone Age people lived in tribes and were nomads. That everyone in the tribe had a job to do and that no part of an animal was wasted. • Understand how Inuit societies are structured now.	Brave Change makers: Making Decisions - Participate in decision making in school. Contribute to well-being of the wider community. Share opinions and evidence on issues with others including decision-makers and elected representatives. Self-Awareness and reflection - Explore reasons for negative feelings towards others and in new or difficult situations.
