Dear Parents/Carers,

Year 3/4 New Rooms Trip

Destination:	The New Rooms, Broadway, Bristol
Date of Trip:	Thursday 16 th November 2023
Times:	We will be leaving school at 9.00am and returning at 3pm
Cost:	£14.89
Details of trip:	We will be exploring the river and journeys that have taken place, in particular, the slave trade in Bristol. We would love to explore this further by taking a trip to the 'New Rooms' in Bristol. This building is the oldest Methodist building in the world built by John Wesley, someone we have been discussing closely in our RE lessons. We would love to take the opportunity to explore this historic building and learn more about Wesley's input in the abolition of the slave trade.
Lunch:	All children will require a packed lunch and bottle of water for the trip. Please can you ensure there are no nut products or chocolate bars in the lunch boxes.
Clothing:	All children will need to wear school uniform and will require a rain coat as we will need to walk from the coach through Cabot Circus to get to the New Rooms.

To cover the cost of the trip, we require a contribution of £14.89. This will be a cashless trip, therefore all payments need to be paid via School Money our online payments system

Consent for your child to attend will also need to be given on this system. The office WILL NOT be accepting cash or cheques for this trip, if you require any assistance with the system please contact the school office.. If we do not receive enough voluntary contributions by the 20th October, we will have to cancel the trip.

Many thanks

Mrs Eggleshaw, Mrs Bright, Mrs Silverthorn, Mrs Oakley & Miss Lockyer
Year 3/4 Team.
